

What Is A-ha! TV?

Contributed by Ife Oshun

Many are asking what exactly this site is about, and what it has to offer. In a nutshell, A-ha! TV is a place where people can explore their spiritual growth and share their journey with others.

Our lives are full of A-ha! moments; those instances where there is perfect clarity and you know exactly what/why/how/when/where. When you're totally in the zone, doing exactly what you're supposed to be doing - and knowing it with every fiber of your being. These are the moments that we want to extend and extend some more until they are no longer mere moments. These are the times we wish to drag out for eternity. Where every day, every hour, every minute, every breath is an illuminated "A-ha!" This is the meaning behind A-ha! TV. This is our purpose - to help extend those moments until you are no longer aware of it - IT just IS.

One way to do this is to share.

There are several ways to share your journey.

Blogging

Video/Audio

Forum

Another way is to seek.

Read any of our articles, many of them written by professionals in their chosen field. Ponder our daily quotes. Or visit our Directory, which is an ever-evolving resource for what's out there (and it's a lot). In addition, we here at A-ha! TV think that the best way to learn and grow is to check out the progress of others like yourself - ordinary people, spirits in the material world. Feel free to read the blogs and posts of others here at A-ha! TV.

So, come on in the water's fine. Thanks for visiting A-ha! TV and have a blessed day.
